

ADVERTISEMENT

Alderman Andrew Grant pleads guilty, sentenced in Canton voter fraud case

Alderman Andrew Grant pleads guilty in Canton voter fraud case. Source: WLBT

By Waverly McCarthy
Published: Aug. 5, 2019 at 10:44 AM EDT

JACKSON, Miss. (WLBT) - Canton Alderman Andrew Grant has pleaded guilty to conspiracy to commit voter fraud. He has been sentenced to five years with five years suspended and five years probation. He will step down from his role as Alderman and will not seek political office in the future. Last week, Courtney Rainey was found guilty on one count in the Canton voter fraud case.

ADVERTISEMENT

A jury found her guilty of count two for a charge of witness intimidation. The jury was hung on count one, which was the voter fraud charge. Their charges stem from the municipal elections in 2017.

AD

The Nitric Oxide Equivalent of 3 Whole Beets in 1 Easy Scoop

SuperBeets Can Help the Body:

- Support Increased Energy & Stamina Without Added Sugar, Caffeine, or Stimulants
- Promote Heart Health & Healthy Circulation

SuperBeets®
www.humann.com/SuperBeets

GET OFFER

Blood Pressure Levels

Skip Ad ▶

Learn More
FIT NOW with NATURAL

[Pics] Symbol found on Statue of Liberty's foot
World Life Style

[Pics] At 49, Michael Strahan Is Still Together With His Partner
InvestmentGuru

2/8