

72° KRQE LOCAL
REPORTING
YOU CAN TRUST● LIVE NOW / KRQE NEWS 13 AT NOON

by: Chelo Rivera

Posted: Apr 3, 2015 / 12:02 PM MDT / Updated: Apr 3, 2015 / 12:02 PM MDT

Man pleads no contest to using son's name to vote

ALBUQUERQUE (KRQE) – A Corrales man won't spend any time behind bars for casting a ballot in his son's name. According to the Albuquerque Journal, 68-year-old Eugene Victor cast the ballot last October to protest New Mexico's last of voter identification requirement. The complaint says he felt guilty and turned himself into voting officials right away. Victor pleaded no contest to false voting and will serve 18 months on probation.

Easter bunny surprises sick kids at Presbyterian hospital

