

SUPPORT NHPR WITH YOUR MONTHLY GIFT AND BECOME A SUSTAINING MEMBER TODAY!

N.H. Election News

Election Website: campaign.nhpr.org Polling Locations

Support

Published January 18, 2016 at 12:35 PM EST

NHPR
Here and Now

A Manchester man has pleaded guilty to voter fraud.

Attorney General Joe Foster says Derek Castonguay knowingly gave his previous addresses to election officials in Windham and Salem so he could vote in those two towns on Election Day 2014.

Following his guilty plea Friday, Castonguay received a 12 month suspended sentence, plus a $1000 fine and penalties.

He also lost his right to vote.

Tags

NH News

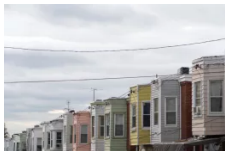

Crime

Elections

Voting Laws

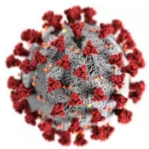

Latest Stories

NH News

For N.H. housing advocates, new eviction ban is welcome but complicated

NH News

An Updated Guide To COVID-19 Transmission Rates In N.H.

NH News

NHPR
Here and Now

NH News

New England Poison Control Center Staying Busy Due To Abundance Of Mushrooms

Related Content

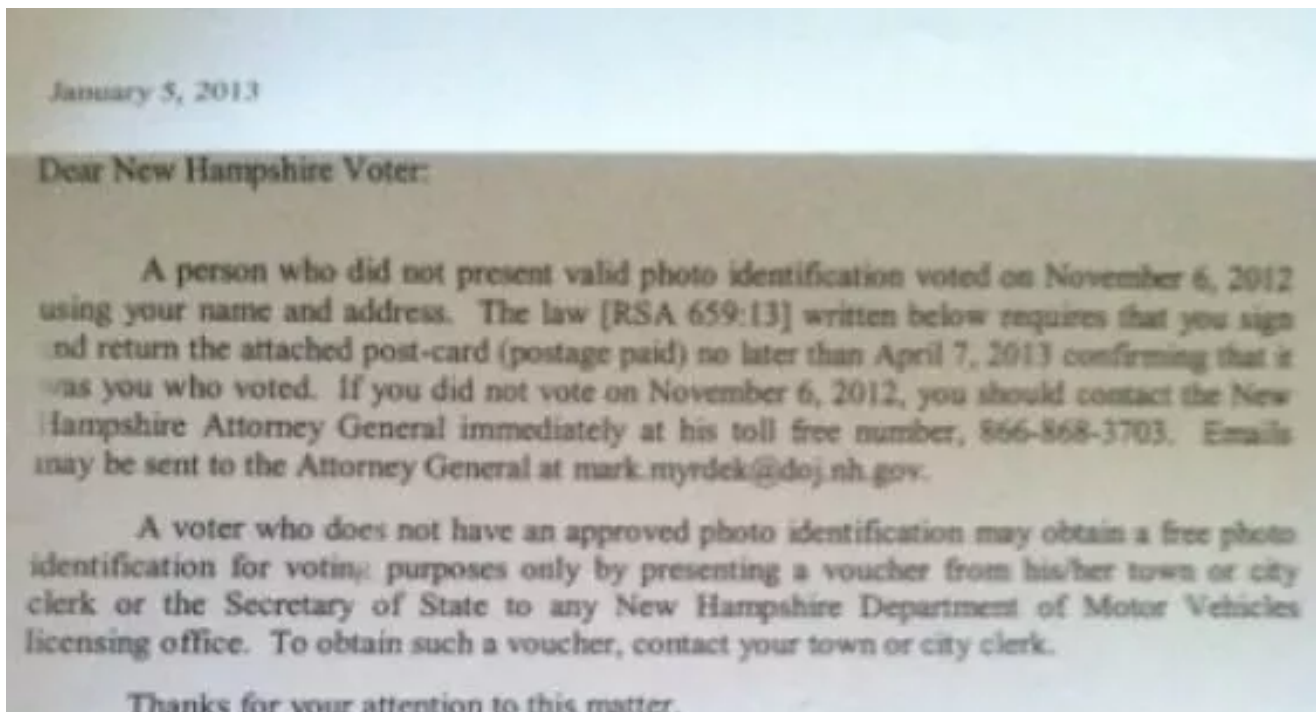

Do Voter ID Laws Prevent Fraud, Or Dampen Turnout?

August 15, 2012

Thirty-three states now have voter ID laws requiring identification for voting. Some new laws requiring photo ID are being challenged in court or reviewed by the Justice Department. One supporter says these laws will prevent fraud. A critic says the claims are overblown.

LISTEN • 37:40

NHPR
Here and Now

NH News

How Much Does It Cost To Prevent Voter Fraud? $16,272 In N.H.

Michael Brindley, January 7, 2013

If you're one of the approximately 5,500 voters who didn't show an ID at the polls in November, you've got mail. You've likely already received a letter...

LISTEN • 1:26

Politics

Manchester Man Accused of Voting in 2 Other Towns in 2014

Associated Press, November 9, 2015

A Manchester man has turned himself in to police after a warrant was issued accusing him of giving false addresses and voting in two other towns on...

Stay Connected

© 2021 New Hampshire Public Radio

NHPR

Here and Now

Contact NHPR

NHPR Radio Schedule

Job Opportunities

Public File

Terms Of Use

NHPR.org | NHPR 900 | NHPR 90.5

