An 81-year-old man who used the names of his deceased son and brother to vote was sentenced last week in Marion County Circuit Court.

Lafayette F. Keaton of Portland pleaded guilty to two counts of making false statements in violation of of state elections law, said Andrea Cantu-Schomus, a spokeswoman with the Oregon Secretary of State's Office.

Keaton was sentenced to three months in jail, fined $5,000 and placed on a one-year post prison supervision plan, Cantu-Schomus said.

The jail time will run concurrently with a previous six-month sentence in federal court for collecting Social Security benefits in his brother's name.
