

72°

LIVE NOW / Watch FOX21 Morning News

CRIME

Colorado Springs woman pleads guilty to voter fraud

by: Angela Case

Posted: Sep 12, 2017 / 09:31 AM MDT / Updated: Sep 12, 2017 / 09:31 AM MDT

COLORADO SPRINGS, Colo. — A Colorado Springs woman has pled guilty to forging her dead mother's signature so that she could vote twice in a 2013 election, according to the clerk and recorder's office.

72°

The clerk's office said Sosa-Sanchez forged her dead mother's signature on a November 2013 ballot, and also cast her own ballot in the same election.

ADVERTISING

An advertisement for Sunrise Senior Living. It features a woman with white hair and glasses, wearing a blue surgical mask and a yellow apron over a pink shirt. She is in a kitchen, rolling out dough on a wooden surface. In the background, there is a kitchen counter with a yellow bowl and a red apple. To the right, a person in a white shirt and blue mask is holding a tablet, showing a video call with the woman. The text "Do More of What You Love" is overlaid in large white letters. Below it is an orange button that says "LEARN MORE". The Sunrise Senior Living logo is in the top right corner of the image area.

Do More of
What You Love

LEARN MORE

As part of her sentencing, Sanchez will provide 60 hours of community service, pay restitution and court fees, and help the clerk and recorder's office educate residents about the consequences of voter fraud.

Copyright 2021 Nexstar Media Inc. All rights reserved. This material may not be published, broadcast, rewritten, or redistributed.

SHARE THIS STORY

AROUND THE WEB

 revcontent.