

Indiana

Indiana has 62 cases of alleged election fraud since 2000. By category, Campaign Official had the highest percentage of accused at 97 percent (60 cases), followed by Voter at 2 percent (1 cases). The most prevalent fraud was Casting Ineligible Vote at 63 percent (39 cases). The status of most cases was Pleaded at 73 percent (45 cases). Responses to requests for public records varied from state to state. Some state and local officials were quick to respond by sending available records; others failed to provide a single document.

View the documents

The responses to our requests.

The actual cases we received.

Definitions

Read the database definitions.

Select from

STATE

Indiana

YEAR

All

TYPE OF ACCUSED

All

- Voter
- Campaign Official
- Unknown
- Third Party
- Organizations
- Election Official
- TYPE OF ACCUSATION
- All
- Absentee Ballot Fraud
- Vote Buying
- Voter Impersonation Fraud
- Registration Fraud
- Non-Citizen Casting Ineligible Vote
- Petition Fraud
- Unknown
- Double Voting
- Campaign Fraud
- Intimidation
- Casting Ineligible Vote
- Falsification of Election Counts
- Other
- Procedural Error
- Felon Casting Ineligible Vote
- Voting

CASE STATUS

All

- Convicted
- Dismissed
- Pleaded
- Case Pending
- Unknown
- Not Charged
- Acquitted
- Consent Order

Showing 0 to 1 of 1 cases found

NAME	STATE	YEAR	TYPE OF ACCUSED	TYPE OF ACCUSATION	CASE STATUS	SYNOPSIS
Glenn Pitts	IN	2003	Campaign Official	Absentee Ballot Fraud, Casting Ineligible Vote	Pleaded	Yes

TYPE OF ACCUSED

Campaign Official 100.0%

TYPE OF ACCUSATION

Absentee Ballot Fraud 100.0%

Casting Ineligible Vote 100.0%

CASE STATUS

Pleaded 100.0%