ampoule arial, cure sans-serif;">VENTURA, California –District Attorney Gregory D. Totten announced today that Mark Evans (DOB 12/26/1952), of Ventura, was convicted of one misdemeanor count of voter fraud. This case was investigated by the Ventura County District Attorney Bureau of Investigation in conjunction with the Ventura County Clerk and Recorder's Office.

Evans voted by absentee ballot in the November 4, 2014, general election. He voted a second time in that election by falsifying an absentee ballot using the name of his recently deceased father-in-law.

Evans was convicted based upon his plea of no contest. Judge Michael S. Lief placed him on 36 months summary probation and ordered that he obey all laws and pay a $1000 fine.

Fair elections are a foundation of our democracy. Voting unlawfully is a crime that will be investigated and prosecuted. According to Mark A. Lunn, County Clerk and Recorder/Registrar of Voters, this conviction sends a clear message: "If you're intent on committing voter fraud, don't do it here in Ventura County."

CHALLENGE THE WIND is a powerful American

revolutionary War tale that dispenses a deep look at the impact of war on a family and those who come into their circle. The novel captures the souls of the audience through its powerful characterizations. However, the key to this strong historical story is the underlying theme that no matter how noble the cause war is hell on not just the combatants, but the loved ones waiting behind for news that those they cherish still live.

LAST CALL AMERICA

Last Call America - Fiction or Forecast?

By Debra Tash Available on Amazon.com

In a devastated America, life has become brutal for the citizens who are living under Martial law. The government has been dismantled and is now being run by the Homeland Security Department. The entire "United States military is also under Homeland Security's control.

American Citizens are being herded into the major cities, striped of their rights and forced to work in factories.

An unlikely pair will forge an uneasy bond, first out of necessity then out of a drive to win back all that has been lost.

That cold New England morning Captain Jason Poole only wanted a hot cup of coffee while Rebecca Sanders just wanted the armed officer to leave the diner her and her sister ran. Rebecca wouldn't get Poole out of her diner or out of her life and the Captain had won himself more than a cup of coffee that day.

Together they would struggle to lead a nation into revolution before the last call sounded and darkness fell.
