

Idaho man pleads guilty to illegal voting

by Associated Press

Wednesday, December 30th 2009

AA

HAILEY, Idaho (AP) A 56-year-old southern Idaho businessman pleaded guilty to a misdemeanor voter fraud charge after acknowledging he tried to vote twice in the November 2008 election.

Walter Coiner, a resident of Ketchum and owner of Hollyberry Nursery in Hansen, pleaded guilty to attempting to vote when not qualified.

68°

81°

83°

Instead, Coiner must serve a term of one-year unsupervised probation. Blaine County Magistrate Judge Jason Walker also required him to perform 40 hours of community service and Coiner must pay $375 in fines and court costs.

Deputy Prosecuting Attorney Matt Fredback said Coiner has no prior criminal record and was cooperative with authorities. Coiner didn't return a phone call from The Associated Press.

Information from: Idaho Mountain Express

ADVERTISEMENT

Archery hunters survive bear attack near E. Idaho border

by Ryan L Morrison
Monday, September 21st 2020

AA