
https://www.stltoday.com/news/local/metro/cahokia-village-trustees-sentenced-for-election-fraud/article_f2ee2ec4-0c9c-11e0-be47-00127992bc8b.html

Cahokia village trustees sentenced for election fraud

STAFF REPORT

Dec 20, 2010

Subscribe for $3 for 3 months

BELLEVILLE - Two former Cahokia village trustees and two other residents were sentenced on Monday to jail time and probation on voter fraud charges involving the April 7, 2009 municipal election.

Circuit Judge John Baricevic sentenced Kyle R. Johnson, a former Cahokia trustee, to five years probation and 14 days in the St. Clair County Jail as part of a plea agreement.

Trevon L. Tompkin, also a former trustee, was sentenced to five years probation and ten days in the county jail. Two others-Kevin Wiggins and William Brown-were sentenced to two years probation and ten days in the county jail.

All of the men must complete 200 hours of community service. Both Johnson and Tompkin are barred from running for public office while on probation.

The men created a scheme where they filed falsified applications for absentee ballots, obtained the ballots and then illegally voted.

St. Clair County State's Attorney Brendan Kelly thanked the Cahokia Police Department and other investigators for their efforts in the case.

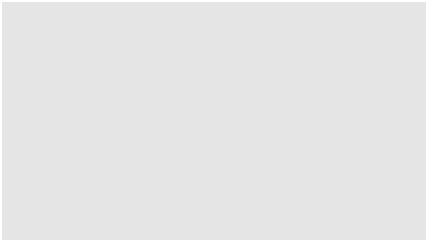

"Going forward, my office will work closely with law enforcement and the U.S. Attorney's Office to protect the integrity of the democratic process," he said.

 0 comments

Most Popular

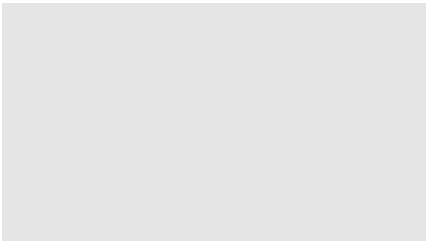

Protesters gather in downtown St. Louis, Florissant after no charges filed in Breonna Taylor death

Sep 24, 2020

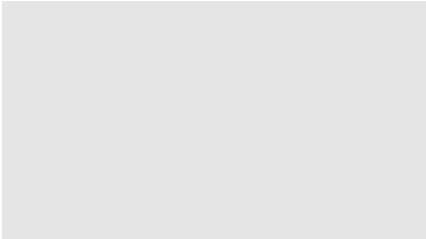

Honduran immigrant and father marks three years of sanctuary in Maplewood church

Sep 21, 2020

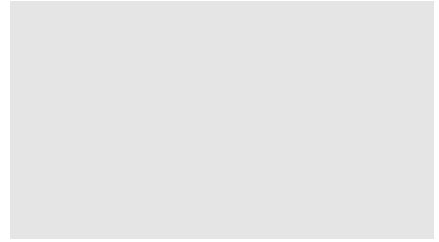

St. Louis children's hospitals see record-breaking number of gunshot victims

Sep 24, 2020

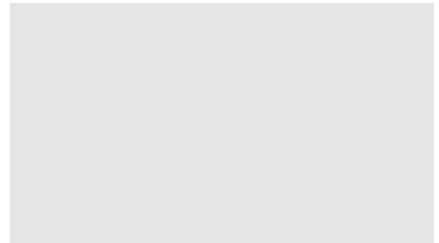

United Hebrew celebrates Rosh Hashanah through car windows

Sep 20, 2020

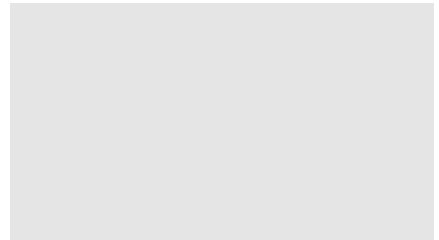

Honduran immigrant and father marks three years of sanctuary in Maplewood church

Sep 21, 2020

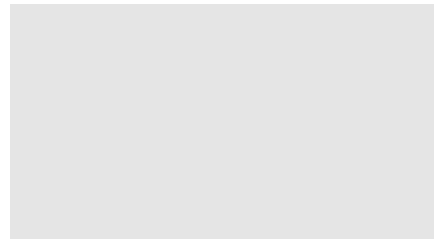

St. Louis children's hospitals see record-breaking number of gunshot victims

Sep 24, 2020

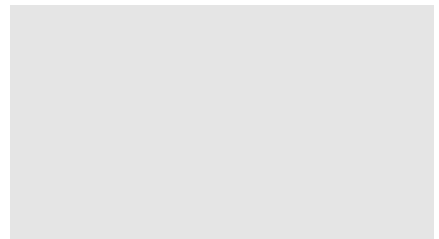

Chesterfield approves agreement to acquire land near Central Park

Sep 22, 2020

City advances application for building additions, improvements at Ladue Middle School

Sep 22, 2020

Uncharted territory: Jesuits in St. Louis search for descendants of people they enslaved

