Kansas Secretary of State Kris Kobach announced today that he has secured a voter fraud conviction. It's the fourth since he was given the authority to prosecute voter fraud cases in July of 2015.

Kobach says Ron R. Weems of Wichita pleaded guilty to two counts of voting without being qualified and one count of advance voting unlawful acts, all three are misdemeanors.

In exchange for the pleas, Kobach dismissed two felony charges of election perjury. Weems agreed to pay fines totaling $5,500.
