Re: Freedom of Information Request

Dear Mr. Corbin:

With regard to the Freedom of Information Law (F.O.I.L.) request from Professor Stephen K Doig, received via email on June 18, 2012 from Sarah Capper, and as a follow-up to my initial response of June 22, 2012, sent to you via email, please be advised that we can only provide to you information on case(s) that have not been sealed by court order. With that being said, we have found one (1) case involving voting fraud since 2000. The information is as follow:

- County/City: Onondaga County/Syracuse, New York
- Defendant's Full Name: Clyde Gerbeck
- Allegation: Voted Twice
- Election Involved: November 2005
- Case Number: Police Report # 06-111026
- Charges: Illegal Voting
- Resolution Date: August 17, 2006
- Election Code Violated: NYS Election Law Article 17, Sec. 132, sub 3 (Class "E" Felony)
- Disposition: Defendant pled guilty to a misdemeanor charge of Primary Election Violation (Election Law Article 17, Sec. 102), and was sentenced to a Conditional Discharge.

If I can be of any further assistance, please let me know.

Very truly yours,

Donna Hamilton
Paralegal/Records Access Officer
