
LOCAL POLITICS

North Greenbush GOP boss admits forgery

By Jordan Carleo-Evangelist, Staff Writer on January 29, 2008 at 3:29 PM

A Republican organizer during last year's hotly contested North Greenbush town board races pleaded guilty to election law violation and will be sentenced to the sheriff's work order program.

Vincent Sculco appeared Monday in Troy City Court and pleaded guilty to a misdemeanor election law violation, admitting he forged the signature of a person on a nominating petition last year, said Special Prosecutor Trey Smith, a Troy lawyer.

Bob Gardinier has the story here.

The 28 Coolest Gifts of 2020

ZangDeal | Sponsored

The Shopping Trick to Save Hundreds of Dollars

Rakuten | Sponsored

Search For Walk In Tubs. They're Simply Astonishing!

Yahoo! Search | Sponsored

American Seniors: New Test For Anyone Who Has Had Cancer

The Health Awareness Project | Sponsored

Here's What It Means When A Baby Has A Butterfly Sucker On Their Hospital Bed

Affluent Times | Sponsored

30 Vintage Fashion Trends That Need to Make a Comeback

living.alot.com | Sponsored