

South Dakota Politics

SDP focuses on national politics with a special emphasis on South Dakota. It also includes posts on philosophy, science and culture. SDP was founded by Jason Van Beek, who stopped blogging after becoming a staffer for Sen. John Thune (R-SD) and is currently operated by Ken Blanchard.

Home

Archives

Profile

Subscribe

Friday, December 23, 2005

Voter Fraud

Yankton Press & Dakota:

A Pine Ridge man has pleaded guilty to voting more than once in the November 2004 general election.

Rudolph Vargas, 51, entered the plea Thursday in U.S. District Court in Rapid City, said Assistant U.S. Attorney Robert Mandel.

Vargas also goes by the name Rudolph Running Shield.

He is out on bond and scheduled to be sentenced March 6. The maximum penalty is five years in custody.

Posted by Jason Heppler on Friday, December 23, 2005 at 06:51 PM | Permalink

Like 0

Reblog.\(o\)_| |

South Dakota Politics

Powered by TypePad