Midge Decter:

A Selected Bibliography

The Heritage Foundation is honored to make this bibliography of Midge Decter's books, chapters, and columns available. While the compilers of this bibliography hope that it is reasonably complete, Midge Decter's output over the many productive years of her long life was formidable, and it is possible that minor or even major publications have been unintentionally omitted. The compilers would be grateful to be informed of any of these omissions and will seek to revise and expand this bibliography as warranted.

Users of the bibliography should be aware that many of Midge Decter's publications are not readily available online without access to major newspaper and magazine databases. The Heritage Foundation cannot supply such access. If you wish to consult publications not available online through regular search engines and do not have database access, please contact your local library or university to ask whether one of these institutions can offer access.

This bibliography was compiled by Dr. Ted R. Bromund, Senior Research Fellow in the Margaret Thatcher Center for Freedom at The Heritage Foundation, with the assistance of Neil Banerji, Spring 2023 member of the Young Leaders' Program in the Margaret Thatcher Center for Freedom at The Heritage Foundation. They are grateful to their colleagues for their assistance and to Abby Schachter of the Institute for Politics and Strategy of Carnegie Mellon University for inspiring the compilation of this bibliography.
