

NEWSWEATHERNEWS 6+GETTING RESULTS.TRAFFICFEATURENEWSWEATHERNEWS 6+GETTING RESULTS.TRAFFICFEATURESSPORTS

Ad

LOCAL NEWS

Ocala woman among 2 arrested in FDLE election fraud investigation

2 women arrested, accused in separate voter fraud cases

Ryan Mackey, Digital Journalist

Published: March 15, 2023 at 2:32 PM

Tags: Ocala, Marion County, Central Florida, Politics, Elections

 Donna Prentes Brady, 66, of Ocala and Toye Ann La Rocca, 63, of Fort Walton Beach, are facing one count of false swearing of voter registration information and two counts of unqualified electors willfully voting, all third-degree felonies.

Donna Prentes Brady, 66, of Ocala and Toye Ann La Rocca, 63, of Fort Walton Beach, are facing one count of false swearing of voter registration information and two counts of unqualified electors willfully voting, all third-degree felonies. (FDLE)

MARION COUNTY, Fla. – The Florida Department of Law Enforcement on Wednesday announced the arrests of two women following an election fraud investigation, according to News 6 partner Local 10.

According to the FDLE, Donna Prentes Brady, 66, of Ocala, was arrested Monday and is facing two counts of casting more than one ballot in any election.

Recommended Videos

Authorities said Toye Ann La Rocca, 63, of Fort Walton Beach, is facing one count of false swearing of voter registration information and two counts of unqualified electors willfully voting, all third-degree felonies.

[TRENDING: Become a News 6 Insider]

Investigators said Brady voted in both the 2020 state primary and general elections in Florida and New Jersey.

FDLE officials said she voted in person in Marion County while voting by mail in Sussex County, New Jersey.

Brady was booked into the Marion County Jail where she will await trial.

In a separate case, authorities said La Rocca was arrested for voting in 2022 while serving probation for a 2022 DUI conviction.