ECONOMIC FREEDOM STATUS: MOSTLY UNFREE

COMOROS

Comoros's economic freedom score is 52.7, making its economy the 130th freest in the 2026 Index of Economic Freedom. Its rating has increased by 1.3 points from last year, and Comoros is ranked 25th out of 47 countries in the Sub-Saharan Africa region. The country's economic freedom score is lower than the global and regional averages. Comoros's economy is considered "mostly unfree" according to the 2026 Index.

The foundations of economic freedom in Comoros are fragile. Scores for property rights and freedom from corruption are low. The public sector is inefficient and lacks transparency. Poor management of macroeconomic policies, coupled with a decade of political crises, has discouraged economic development. The business environment remains severely constrained, and the inefficient regulatory environment limits the freedom to establish and run private enterprises. Much of the workforce is employed in the small retail services sector, and informal labor activity is widespread.
