

REPUBLIC OF CONGO

WORLD RANK: 153 | REGIONAL RANK: 38
 ECONOMIC FREEDOM STATUS: REPRESSED

The Republic of the Congo's economic freedom score is 48.6, making its economy the 153rd freest in the 2026 Index of Economic Freedom. Its rating has not changed from last year, and Congo is ranked 38th out of 47 countries in the Sub-Saharan Africa region. The country's economic freedom score is lower than the global and regional averages. The Republic of the Congo's economy is considered "repressed" according to the 2026 Index.

Economic freedom remains fragile in Congo because of repressive governance that is exacerbated by the weak rule of law. The judiciary's weakness fuels corruption, and state control is extensive. Political instability and the slow pace of reform have left the nation's institutional capacity inadequate. The formal labor market is not well developed. Congo is one of sub-Saharan Africa's largest producers of oil but lacks the infrastructure needed to exploit its energy potential.
