SAINT VINCENT AND THE GRENADINES

Saint Vincent and the Grenadines' economic freedom score is 60.0, making its economy the 89th freest in the 2026 Index of Economic Freedom. Its rating has decreased by 0.1 point from last year, and Saint Vincent and the Grenadines is ranked 17th out of 32 countries in the Americas region. The country's economic freedom score is higher than the world and regional averages. Saint Vincent and the Grenadines' economy is considered "moderately free" according to the 2026 Index.

The economy of Saint Vincent and the Grenadines is characterized by flexible regulations, an efficient legal system that secures private property, and macroeconomic stability. Tourism is the primary economic driver and the principal draw for foreign investment. Enforcement of regulations is relatively effective, but limited access to funding still stifles more vibrant entrepreneurial activity. A well-functioning labor market is not fully developed, and much of the labor force is employed in agriculture and tourism.
